

List of Private Lesson Teachers

Private lessons are the best investment you can make in your music education! Unlike other subjects, private lessons for orchestra are not “tutoring” to catch you up if you are behind. They are one-on-one sessions to help you advance at your own pace and work on music that is more difficult than your orchestra music! Lesson cost varies depending on the training and experience of the teacher. Private lessons are held on a weekly basis and are usually 30 minutes or one hour long.
